Call to order

The special session meeting of the Arizona State Board of Athletic Training was called to order at 9:00 a.m. Chair, Laurie White presiding.

Declaration of conflicts of Interest

Ms. White asked if anyone needed to declare a conflict of interest based on anything on the agenda. None of the Board members indicated that they needed to do so.

Review, discussion and Possible Action – Other Business

a. SB 1326 and amendment

The Board had become aware of a floor amendment to SB 1326 which was cause for concern as to the impact it might have on the operations of the Board. The amendment included that the Board shall adopt rules to prescribe the appropriate education and training for services that are proper to be performed by an athletic trainer. After considerable discussion the Board determined that there was need to ask John Parsons, AzATA to join the discussion and therefore at 9:40 a.m. a recess was called by the Chair.

The meeting reconvened at 11:00 a.m. at which time Mr. Parsons was able to join the discussion. Mr. Parsons explained that the intent of this amendment was that the Board would simply adopt the National Athletic Trainers' Association Athletic Training Educational competencies and the Board of Certification, role Delineation Study to satisfy this amendment. The Board was not certain that these documents would satisfy the requirement of this statutory language and requested that Mr. Parsons provide copies of the documents so that the Board's Attorney General could review them. Mr. Parsons agreed to do so. The copies will be provided to the Executive Director who will get them to the Attorney General's Office.

Call to the Public

A call to the public was made and no public comment was received.

Adjournment

There being no further business before the Board, Aaron Nelson moved to adjourn the meeting. The motion was seconded by Michael Nesbitt. The meeting adjourned at 12:00 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Wendy H. Hammon
Executive Director
